

265 East Main Street, Branford, CT 06405
(866)928-6428 www.periship.com

Position: Junior Systems Engineer

Job Description

Our enthusiastic and driven professionals work together to present a very high level of customer service to our customers. Our customer service is supported by a strong technology team that builds customized tools and resources needed to bring this premier service to perishable shippers. We are seeking an entry level Systems Engineer to support our current systems. For additional details see below regarding role responsibilities and required skills/experience.

Primary Responsibilities

- Supporting our current back office IT environment. We are running under a "mixed" OS environment.
- Configuration of the Windows/Mac Workstations. Maintaining the current call center phone system (SwitchVox).
- Provide the production support on our AMAZON and Office 365 Cloud service.
- Provide mobile device support.
- Provide production support and application deployment support in regarding to PeriShip's web complex.
- Occasionally work as PeriShip Call center support to answer the calls that specific to IT related issues.

Required Skills/Qualifications:

- General knowledge and experience with Linux, Microsoft Windows (Workstation and Server).
- General knowledge of Apache, Databases (MYSQL) HTML, Javascript.
- Good communication skills.
- Computer-related or Engineering-related four year College or University Degree (or equivalent).

Benefits:

- Comprehensive Medical & Dental Programs entirely paid for by PeriShip
- Education Reimbursement Program
- 401(k) Program with strong employer match

All interested applications should send a cover letter and current resume to HR@periship.com. Thank you for your interest!